Dear Mr. Tanzer:

Thank you for writing Director Casey for whom I am responding.

Mr. Casey hopes you will understand that because of his public and sensitive position, it would not be appropriate for him to comment on your questionnaire.

We do, however, wish you every success with your survey.

Sincerely,

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I would like to request your participation in our twelfth annual survey of national leadership.

Because you are a leader in your own field, your views on the quality of leadership, the importance of the country's institutions and your thoughts on the men and women who run America by virtue of their influence on national life are important to any evaluation of leadership.

In many ways, this is a significant time for America. There are newly elected leaders to assess and vital domestic and international issues to be addressed. At the same time, there are leaders outside of government who also have substantial influence on our country. With your help, we would like to provide to U.S.News readers a current appraisal by those who are leaders themselves.

Your responses and your personal comments will be of great value to us. Your name, of course, will not be used in news stories about the survey findings, or even known to us, unless you sign the questionnaire and give us permission.

Regardless of whether you sign, your reply is very important because the questionnaire is being sent only to a limited number of leaders.

We hope that you will be able to return your completed questionnaire to us very soon. A stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed for your convenience.

We thank you very much for your help.

Sincerely,

Lester Tanzer
